I'm wondering if this function works for all strings or only for strings of length greater than or equal to this number. I've tried to find the answer myself but I haven't been able to, hence why I'm asking here. I'm relatively new to programming and just finished learning Python so I'm not so comfortable with it yet. The function is: def slo(splength=5): try: geslo=int(input(648931e174
