By Eric Pahon A Bay City man was sentenced Thursday to 27 years to life in prison for breaking into and sexually assaulting three women and their newborn baby daughter in 2015. Bay City police arrested Victor Dominguez, 23, on three counts of first-degree criminal sexual conduct for assault, malicious destruction of a dwelling, first-degree home invasion and one count of third-degree home invasion. The incident occurred Jan. 29, 2015, when Dominguez and a group of friends entered the home of N.V. at Kingsley Street and Lorenzo Road, breaking in and ultimately trying to sexually assault her, according to Lt. Jason Bishop, spokesman for the Bay City Police Department. N.V. was asleep and woke to see Dominguez inside the bedroom with his genitalia exposed and his hands up her shirt, Bishop said. He then forced her into the bathroom and instructed her to remove her clothes, Bishop said. Dominguez then forced himself on her and vaginally and orally raped her for a total of approximately 15 minutes, according to the prosecutor. Dominguez then left the home, followed by her family dog, Sable, who alerted her parents that Dominguez had gone, Bishop said. According to the prosecutor, Dominguez was later identified by his friends through social media and voluntarily contacted police. Police found DNA evidence at the scene in the form of fluid on N.V.'s hands and a vaginal swab, Bishop said. Dominguez was arraigned Friday at 27th District Court and pleaded not guilty. A jury trial was scheduled for July.
